EVENT REVIEW

Protective Face Shield Donation Review

Between March 29th to April 15, we donated 150 face shields to seven medical organizations in Massachusetts to help flatten the coronavirus curve. We received great feedback in pictures and in words. The seven medical organizations are Cambridge Health Alliance, Brigham and Women's Hospital, Tufts Medical Center, Charles River Center, Emerson Hospital, Signature Healthcare Brockton Hospital, and Jamaica Plain VA Medical Center.

We did our best to make the face shields as perfect as possible given the resources we have. There are a minimum of 12 process steps involved in making a single face shield. Right now, individuals can buy the face shields directly from us for their family members and teams. Add-on personalization with a name is available with an additional $2.50. However the personalization is free for first responders. The base unit price is $29.99 plus shipping and handling. Contact info@toysinbox.com for purchase and pay via PayPal. For more info on the face shields, please check Toysinbox March newsletter.

3D Printing Zoom Classes

We will offer 3D printing virtual classes starting in May. We will remotely instruct and interact with students via screen sharing. Once the students finish their design, we will 3D print their designs from our end and stream part of the printing process for students to see. Then, we will ship each student's 3D print via USPS.

We are adding two new classes that are related to the current situation. Make Hygienic No-Touch Door Opener with Button Pusher and Make Face Mask Ear Savers. We are also including the classic Make Your Name Keychain in the offering.

For each class, the charge is $30/person. 3D print shipping and handling is included. We will talk more about our 3D printing zoom classes in next issue.

Please email info@toysinbox.com if you are interested.
