Holiday Season 3D Printing Show (3)

Our 3D printing show kick-started this weekend, Dec 16th-Dec 17th, 2023. We really appreciated the families near and far coming to join us. Thank you all for your continued support! Thanks for joining us on this journey.

This holiday season 3D printing show is a family-friendly 6-day event. It is geared towards hands-on activities related to 3D printing and aims at bringing 3D printing thrill and excitement. Children and teens have indeed enjoyed our activities. How can we tell? It is so obvious. They are so busy with our activities that they put away their iPhones! They stay on average two hours instead of 1 hour. Isn't it impressive?

There are only four days left for Toysinbox 3D Printing Show 2023. Scan the code to book your tickets, and bring the 3D printing magic to your family this holiday season!

Ticket Price: $5/person ~ $28/person

3D Printing Summer Camp 2024

As we are busy with the process to fully resume in-person operation, 3D printing in-person summer camp is returning with new exciting activities. Each child will have plenty 3D printing time. They will take home their 3D printing creations everyday to enlighten the whole family with thrill. Your family's summer fun will beam with the 3D printing joy. Is it magical?

Toysinbox 3D printing education experts will guide your children to explore deeply into the 3D printing world. By the end of the week, your children can independently create 3D designs and can 3D print their designs themselves. Is it wonderful?

Another great news! We successfully optimized our operation and are able to offer the 3D printing summer camp at a great price! Only $350 per child. What a great deal! Best price in town!

You won't find anything like what we offer somewhere else. 3D printing is the future. Help your children get into the 3D printing world and enjoy the fun!

Email info@toysinbox.com for registration.

Seasonal Greetings from Toysinbox
