Free STL Pattern Share

Bubble tea, the third pattern in our 5-pattern package for 2022, was shared for free on June 24th on our Facebook page. Crystal will be the next and will be shared July 29th.

You can subscribe to this package at a price of $35 and receive the plant and pot, desert plant, and bubble tea patterns immediately. You will receive the remaining patterns of crystal and mountain directly in your email box when they're available. If you want free STL patterns, just join our next Facebook free file-sharing events. Follow us on Facebook @Toysinbox3DPrinting to be in the loop!

3D Printing Summer Camp

Virtual Over Zoom SUMMER CAMP Receive 3D Printed Designs via USPS

Quick Facts

- Four separate age groups: 6-7, 8-10, 11-13, and 14-15
- 5-7 camps per camp
- 2-hour daily live session
- Award-winning instructors
- Live 3D printing of campers' designs
- Campers' 3D prints shipped in 3 business days after camp is over

Virtual Open House

Our virtual open houses are approximately 30 minutes long. We take a 360 degree tour of our 3D printing campus and its garage. Q&A with Directors Jessica and Joshua for programs.

Our People

Our instructors have more than 7 years of 3D printing teaching experience in multiple elementary schools and middle schools, 7th-12th grade and our 3D printing camps and classes. They're 3D printing books authors and 3D printing speakers at conferences. They've hosted 3D printing fun activities at science fairs and STEM events such as Cambridge Science Festival hosted by MIT, Boston City Wide Science Fair hosted by Northeastern University, and even the National Science and Engineering Festival in Washington DC.

Financial Aid

We offer camp scholarships and need-based financial aid.
