EVENT REVIEW

By TOYSINBOX PEOPLE

3D Printing Group Outings

Toysinbox was chosen to host the group outings. How exciting! People really enjoyed the 3D design and 3D printing workshops, 3D printing exploration program, and 3D photo booth. Our guests were fantastic and had a great passion for technology. We are looking forward to their future revisits.

Geek is Glam at WPI

In October, Toysinbox was invited to attend the Geek is Glam event at WPI. It was great to see so many girls interested in STEM. To our great joy, we even met our former enrichment class students! Many girls waited patiently to try our 3D printers. Also, there were two liquid nitrogen ice cream makers. They made ice cream by spraying liquid nitrogen into the liquid ice cream mixture. This whole process happened in only 30 seconds! The ice cream was truly delicious. iRobot also exhibited their robot rovers and allowed girls to try navigating the rovers through the crowd.
